

EPISCOPAL CHURCH WON'T CHANGE NAME

Efforts Abandoned at Convention by Those Who Favored Proposal.

PRAYER REVISION SOUGHT

Fair Play for All Urged in Sermon by Bishop Lawrence of Massachusetts.

SE. LOUIS, Oct. 22.—Efforts to change the name of the Protestant Episcopal Church have been abandoned in the convention in session here, leaders of the church said to-day. This follows the action of the House of Deputies of the convention yesterday in adopting without debate a title page for a new hymnal which reaffirmed the present name of the church.

For several years a change of name has been advocated by a faction in the church on the ground that the word "Protestant" in the title apparently allies it with those denominations having their origin with the Reformation. The Protestant Episcopal Church traces its history back to the time of Christ, they assert.

Tens of thousands of people out of this church in the United States to-day, persons of excellent character and religious parents, are to be won back to the church by fair play, a sense of justice and a life of willing service to all parts of the church. Right Rev. Dr. William Lawrence, Bishop of Massachusetts, said in the official sermon of the General Convention to-day:

"Speaking of social justice, the Bishop urged a larger consideration for the man than for the spirit of sectionalism."

"Men such as make right in the church, or Christian people, may not condemn without hearing," he continued. "Fair play is what the people demand from the church. There is a suspicion on the part of some that the church is composed of people who are not willing to speak, but were unable to be present in Albany."

NORWEGIAN BANKERS HERE

Aim Is to Improve Financial Relations With This Country.

Four Norwegian bankers, headed by Emil Søhus Dahl of Christiania, arrived yesterday from Bergen by the Norwegian-American steamship Bergensfjord. Their aim is "to improve the financial relations between the United States" and Mr. Dahl put it.

Accompanying the bankers were seven Norwegian skippers, including Capt. Hjalmar T. Bryde, who is going to Seattle to take over seven steamships, each of 7,000 tons, built for Norwegian shipping firm. Capt. S. G. Brown, who will take over four steamships of 8,000 tons each building at Philadelphia, and Capt. Fred Ole Hansen, bound for Japan to get steamships building there.

Mr. Dahl said Norway had made important contributions since the beginning of the war of ships in which she has invested about $2,000,000; railroad stocks, bonds, iron and steel and provisions. Mr. Dahl predicted that there would be no slump in shipping after the war.

The most informing book of the year.

"THE GRAVEST 366 DAYS"

Day by Day with the Editors of

The Evening Mail

This book of 640 pages is a carefully selected collection of editorials which illuminate each day of the past twelve months—days which rivaled each other in importance to the United States, Europe and all mankind.

Price $1.60 net. Give your order to any bookseller, or mail orders addressed to The Evening Mail will be promptly filled.

OFFICIAL CIRCULATION STATEMENTS

OF THE GERMAN DAILY PAPERS

PUBLISHED IN
NEW YORK CITY
SUBMITTED TO THE POST OFFICE DEPARTMENT
OCTOBER 1st, 1916

GERMAN HEROLD . . . 121,951 STAATS-ZEITUNG . . . 116,719 Deutsches JOURNAL . . . 53,003

The above demonstrates that the GERMAN HEROLD has the largest circulation of the Metropolitan Newspapers published in the German language in the UNITED STATES.

body, the philanthropist, the Rev. Karl Rolland of New York, Bishop Paul Jones of Utah, the Rev. John H. Malish, the Rev. E. H. Nelson of Cincinnati, and Bishop Sanford of San Joachim, Cal.

STATE MAY CONDUCT HEARINGS BY PHONE

Multiple Wire Connections Planned by Finley to Aid Legislative Work.

Fair Play for All Urged in Sermon by Bishop Lawrence of Massachusetts.

SE. LOUIS, Oct. 22.—Efforts to change the name of the Protestant Episcopal Church have been abandoned in the convention in session here, leaders of the church said to-day. This follows the action of the House of Deputies of the convention yesterday in adopting without debate a title page for a new hymnal which reaffirmed the present name of the church.

For several years a change of name has been advocated by a faction in the church on the ground that the word "Protestant" in the title apparently allies it with those denominations having their origin with the Reformation. The Protestant Episcopal Church traces its history back to the time of Christ, they assert.

The plan is a result of the convention of the University of the State of New York, of which Commissioner Finley is president. At the concluding session of the convocation Friday night 800 telephone receivers were set up in the auditorium of the State Education Building, speeches were delivered from all parts of the country, including the Pacific coast, and Thomas A. Edison received the first honorary degree ever conferred by telephone.

The plan was worked out at the convention as no practical feature, however, the Eastern Pennsylvania Railroad has been chosen to furnish the telephone receivers. State committees or other bodies may, by means of multiple telephone connections, have arguments on any proposition from any part of the State, has been evolved by Commissioner John Finley of the State Department of Education.

These notes were issued to provide working capital and partly also to provide for floating indebtedness created in acquiring water rights for subsidiary companies and for extensions and improvements to properties. There are no bonds outstanding in the amount of the authorization. Although these notes are not secured by a mortgage, they are protected by a substantial margin of safety in earnings, which would seem to entitle them to a favorable rating. They were underwritten by the Electric Bond & Share Company of New York city.

Eastern Pennsylvania Railways.

R. A. H. Wasonnet, R. L. Lewis, tell how the Eastern Pennsylvania Railroad has chosen to furnish the telephone receivers. State committees or other bodies may, by means of multiple telephone connections, have arguments on any proposition from any part of the State, has been evolved by Commissioner John Finley of the State Department of Education.

These notes were issued to provide working capital and partly also to provide for floating indebtedness created in acquiring water rights for subsidiary companies and for extensions and improvements to properties. There are no bonds outstanding in the amount of the authorization. Although these notes are not secured by a mortgage, they are protected by a substantial margin of safety in earnings, which would seem to entitle them to a favorable rating. They were underwritten by the Electric Bond & Share Company of New York city.

Canadian Pacific Railway.

F. G. S. Brooklyn—At what do you estimate the current earnings of the Canadian Pacific Railway? What do you estimate such changes as come about on account of the seasons? Has the company done well in the last year? What is the general amount about through transportation of freight between Canada and Russia by way of the Canadian Pacific?

Canadian Pacific Railway is earning currently at a rate which would be equivalent to about 18 per cent on the common stock. Actually for the first two months of 1916 the total stock, compared with 200 per cent for the year corresponding two months of the last fiscal year. It was announced in June that the company had definitely entered into an agreement with the Russian Government respecting the French freight rates between Canada and Russia.

The details have apparently not been made public but under it importers and exporters of both countries get facilities which theretofore they had not enjoyed.

ARTHUR L. MURKIN, Manager,
25 West 45th Street, New York City.
BERNARD BRAUN, Attorney for Attorneys,
239 Broadway, New York City.

The memorial, as prepared, charges that when the convention of 1913 appointed a committee to revise the prayer book, with the provision that revision and enrichment shall not impose any change of doctrine, it made impossible a genuine revision. It is stated that there has been no genuine revision of the prayer book since the Reformation.

In support of the memorial it will be urged that the prayer book should reflect the teachings of modern scholarship regarding the Biblical text; that it should show an appreciation of the beauty and majesty of creation instead of the present declarations that all are "miserable sinners" and that "children are born in sin."

The memorial is signed by R. Fulton

Cutting of New York, the Rev. Percy S.

Grant of New York; George Foster Peter.

Efforts Abandoned at Convention by Those Who Favored Proposal.

Fair Play for All Urged in Sermon by Bishop Lawrence of Massachusetts.

SE. LOUIS, Oct. 22.—Efforts to change the name of the Protestant Episcopal Church have been abandoned in the convention in session here, leaders of the church said to-day. This follows the action of the House of Deputies of the convention yesterday in adopting without debate a title page for a new hymnal which reaffirmed the present name of the church.

For several years a change of name has been advocated by a faction in the church on the ground that the word "Protestant" in the title apparently allies it with those denominations having their origin with the Reformation. The Protestant Episcopal Church traces its history back to the time of Christ, they assert.

The plan is a result of the convention of the University of the State of New York, of which Commissioner Finley is president. At the concluding session of the convocation Friday night 800 telephone receivers were set up in the auditorium of the State Education Building, speeches were delivered from all parts of the country, including the Pacific coast, and Thomas A. Edison received the first honorary degree ever conferred by telephone.

The plan was worked out at the convention as no practical feature, however, the Eastern Pennsylvania Railroad has been chosen to furnish the telephone receivers. State committees or other bodies may, by means of multiple telephone connections, have arguments on any proposition from any part of the State, has been evolved by Commissioner John Finley of the State Department of Education.

These notes were issued to provide working capital and partly also to provide for floating indebtedness created in acquiring water rights for subsidiary companies and for extensions and improvements to properties. There are no bonds outstanding in the amount of the authorization. Although these notes are not secured by a mortgage, they are protected by a substantial margin of safety in earnings, which would seem to entitle them to a favorable rating. They were underwritten by the Electric Bond & Share Company of New York city.

Canadian Pacific Railway.

F. G. S. Brooklyn—At what do you estimate the current earnings of the Canadian Pacific Railway? What do you estimate such changes as come about on account of the seasons? Has the company done well in the last year? What is the general amount about through transportation of freight between Canada and Russia by way of the Canadian Pacific?

Canadian Pacific Railway is earning currently at a rate which would be equivalent to about 18 per cent on the common stock. Actually for the first two months of 1916 the total stock, compared with 200 per cent for the year corresponding two months of the last fiscal year. It was announced in June that the company had definitely entered into an agreement with the Russian Government respecting the French freight rates between Canada and Russia.

The details have apparently not been made public but under it importers and exporters of both countries get facilities which theretofore they had not enjoyed.

ARTHUR L. MURKIN, Manager,
25 West 45th Street, New York City.
BERNARD BRAUN, Attorney for Attorneys,
239 Broadway, New York City.

The memorial, as prepared, charges that when the convention of 1913 appointed a committee to revise the prayer book, with the provision that revision and enrichment shall not impose any change of doctrine, it made impossible a genuine revision. It is stated that there has been no genuine revision of the prayer book since the Reformation.

In support of the memorial it will be urged that the prayer book should reflect the teachings of modern scholarship regarding the Biblical text; that it should show an appreciation of the beauty and majesty of creation instead of the present declarations that all are "miserable sinners" and that "children are born in sin."

The memorial is signed by R. Fulton

Cutting of New York, the Rev. Percy S.

Grant of New York; George Foster Peter.

Efforts Abandoned at Convention by Those Who Favored Proposal.

Fair Play for All Urged in Sermon by Bishop Lawrence of Massachusetts.

SE. LOUIS, Oct. 22.—Efforts to change the name of the Protestant Episcopal Church have been abandoned in the convention in session here, leaders of the church said to-day. This follows the action of the House of Deputies of the convention yesterday in adopting without debate a title page for a new hymnal which reaffirmed the present name of the church.

For several years a change of name has been advocated by a faction in the church on the ground that the word "Protestant" in the title apparently allies it with those denominations having their origin with the Reformation. The Protestant Episcopal Church traces its history back to the time of Christ, they assert.

The plan is a result of the convention of the University of the State of New York, of which Commissioner Finley is president. At the concluding session of the convocation Friday night 800 telephone receivers were set up in the auditorium of the State Education Building, speeches were delivered from all parts of the country, including the Pacific coast, and Thomas A. Edison received the first honorary degree ever conferred by telephone.

The plan was worked out at the convention as no practical feature, however, the Eastern Pennsylvania Railroad has been chosen to furnish the telephone receivers. State committees or other bodies may, by means of multiple telephone connections, have arguments on any proposition from any part of the State, has been evolved by Commissioner John Finley of the State Department of Education.

These notes were issued to provide working capital and partly also to provide for floating indebtedness created in acquiring water rights for subsidiary companies and for extensions and improvements to properties. There are no bonds outstanding in the amount of the authorization. Although these notes are not secured by a mortgage, they are protected by a substantial margin of safety in earnings, which would seem to entitle them to a favorable rating. They were underwritten by the Electric Bond & Share Company of New York city.

Canadian Pacific Railway.

F. G. S. Brooklyn—At what do you estimate the current earnings of the Canadian Pacific Railway? What do you estimate such changes as come about on account of the seasons? Has the company done well in the last year? What is the general amount about through transportation of freight between Canada and Russia by way of the Canadian Pacific?

Canadian Pacific Railway is earning currently at a rate which would be equivalent to about 18 per cent on the common stock. Actually for the first two months of 1916 the total stock, compared with 200 per cent for the year corresponding two months of the last fiscal year. It was announced in June that the company had definitely entered into an agreement with the Russian Government respecting the French freight rates between Canada and Russia.

The details have apparently not been made public but under it importers and exporters of both countries get facilities which theretofore they had not enjoyed.

ARTHUR L. MURKIN, Manager,
25 West 45th Street, New York City.
BERNARD BRAUN, Attorney for Attorneys,
239 Broadway, New York City.

The memorial, as prepared, charges that when the convention of 1913 appointed a committee to revise the prayer book, with the provision that revision and enrichment shall not impose any change of doctrine, it made impossible a genuine revision. It is stated that there has been no genuine revision of the prayer book since the Reformation.

In support of the memorial it will be urged that the prayer book should reflect the teachings of modern scholarship regarding the Biblical text; that it should show an appreciation of the beauty and majesty of creation instead of the present declarations that all are "miserable sinners" and that "children are born in sin."

The memorial is signed by R. Fulton

Cutting of New York, the Rev. Percy S.

Grant of New York; George Foster Peter.

Efforts Abandoned at Convention by Those Who Favored Proposal.

Fair Play for All Urged in Sermon by Bishop Lawrence of Massachusetts.

SE. LOUIS, Oct. 22.—Efforts to change the name of the Protestant Episcopal Church have been abandoned in the convention in session here, leaders of the church said to-day. This follows the action of the House of Deputies of the convention yesterday in adopting without debate a title page for a new hymnal which reaffirmed the present name of the church.

For several years a change of name has been advocated by a faction in the church on the ground that the word "Protestant" in the title apparently allies it with those denominations having their origin with the Reformation. The Protestant Episcopal Church traces its history back to the time of Christ, they assert.

The plan is a result of the convention of the University of the State of New York, of which Commissioner Finley is president. At the concluding session of the convocation Friday night 800 telephone receivers were set up in the auditorium of the State Education Building, speeches were delivered from all parts of the country, including the Pacific coast, and Thomas A. Edison received the first honorary degree ever conferred by telephone.

The plan was worked out at the convention as no practical feature, however, the Eastern Pennsylvania Railroad has been chosen to furnish the telephone receivers. State committees or other bodies may, by means of multiple telephone connections, have arguments on any proposition from any part of the State, has been evolved by Commissioner John Finley of the State Department of Education.

These notes were issued to provide working capital and partly also to provide for floating indebtedness created in acquiring water rights for subsidiary companies and for extensions and improvements to properties. There are no bonds outstanding in the amount of the authorization. Although these notes are not secured by a mortgage, they are protected by a substantial margin of safety in earnings, which would seem to entitle them to a favorable rating. They were underwritten by the Electric Bond & Share Company of New York city.

Canadian Pacific Railway.

F. G. S. Brooklyn—At what do you estimate the current earnings of the Canadian Pacific Railway? What do you estimate such changes as come about on account of the seasons? Has the company done well in the last year? What is the general amount about through transportation of freight between Canada and Russia by way of the Canadian Pacific?

Canadian Pacific Railway is earning currently at a rate which would be equivalent to about 18 per cent on the common stock. Actually for the first two months of 1916 the total stock, compared with 200 per cent for the year corresponding two months of the last fiscal year. It was announced in June that the company had definitely entered into an agreement with the Russian Government respecting the French freight rates between Canada and Russia.

The details have apparently not been made public but under it importers and exporters of both countries get facilities which theretofore they had not enjoyed.

ARTHUR L. MURKIN, Manager,
25 West 45th Street, New York City.
BERNARD BRAUN, Attorney for Attorneys,
239 Broadway, New York City.

The memorial, as prepared, charges that when the convention of 1913 appointed a committee to revise the prayer book, with the provision that revision and enrichment shall not impose any change of doctrine, it made impossible a genuine revision. It is stated that there has been no genuine revision of the prayer book since the Reformation.

In support of the memorial it will be urged that the prayer book should reflect the teachings of modern scholarship regarding the Biblical text; that it should show an appreciation of the beauty and majesty of creation instead of the present declarations that all are "miserable sinners